

10 September 1952

Dear [redacted]

I was distressed to learn of the untimely death of [redacted]. Her loss to the cultural life of this country is one which we all share, and her impressive contributions to [redacted] will always be remembered. But it is your own bereavement which prompts this note, and I want you to know that you have my deepest personal sympathy and that of the others with whom you have worked here.

Sincerely,

W. B. Smith

[redacted]

O/DCI - [redacted]

Distr: Orig - addressee
1 - reading
1 - official

3 October 1952

STAT

[] called today. I told him that Mr.

STAT

Dulles was away and that I would tell him upon his return that [] had called. (Mr.

STAT

[] said that he did not wish to see anyone else as he was a personal friend of Mr. Dulles').